Dear New Patient,

Welcome to Acupuncture Fertility Specialists!

We hope you find your time with us as worthwhile and rewarding as hundreds of others before you. We strive to meet and exceed your expectations. Please take a moment to review some of the following information about us:

We are a multi-practitioner clinic. All of our practitioners are trained in the field of Fertility Acupuncture and are fully qualified to care for your individual needs. We use a rotating schedule. All our fertility specialists share patient information and meet regularly to make sure that you are getting the most continuous comprehensive care available. Due to the nature of the schedule you may be unable to see the same practitioner on a regular basis. We ask that you please be flexible with us and know that accommodating your care is our biggest priority.

Typical fertility care includes seeing you once a week through gestational week twelve, and once a month through the duration of your pregnancy. Acupuncture is a process, and each person's body responds to treatment differently. The average patient who gets pregnant through our clinic does so in five menstrual cycles. If you are with us for ten or more menstrual cycles with no pregnancy, we will discuss the possibility of a referral to a fertility clinic or some other form of medical care. If you need a break from care, please discuss this with your practitioner so you can continue any nutritional supplements or dietary changes during this time, to avoid regression toward your pretreatment condition.

We will do our best to answer your questions about your fertility. We may occasionally refer you to a reproductive endocrinologist for answers to your more complicated problems or for any information on prescription medications or surgical procedures. We work closely with RE's and OB/GYN's to achieve positive outcomes for our patients. If you are an IVF patient, we think the most critically important thing you can do to enhance your IVF success is the Day of Embryo Transfer protocol. You can read about this on our website at www.acupuncture4fertility.com.

We do not bill insurance. If you would like to get reimbursed by your insurance carrier for your treatments we can provide a super bill for your visits with a diagnosis code. We accept cash, check, Visa, or MasterCard at the time of service as payment.

Thank you for the opportunity to work with you. We look forward to helping you along your path to building a family.

Sincerely,

Swasti Shrestha, L.Ac., M.S.T.C.M.
Clinical Director of Acupuncture Fertility Specialists

Informed Consent to Receive Treatment and Care

You are always welcome to ask for more details if you wish. Contradictions (symptoms or conditions that make a particular treatment inadvisable) for acupuncture treatment and certain herbs include a history of bleeding disorder or current anticoagulation therapy, implanted pacemaker or prosthetic heart valve, and use of certain medications. It is important that you notify your practitioner if any of these apply to you.

_____ I understand that the diagnosis given to me confirms to the principles of Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM), and in no way purports to replace allopathic medical evaluation, diagnosis or treatment.

_____ I have provided a full history and description of the complaints and health status which is complete and accurate. I understand the need for communication with all of my health care providers regarding my health status is ongoing and necessary.

_____ I understand that no guarantee has been made concerning the use and effects of Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM). I understand that in some cases, symptoms may relapse or intensify temporarily during the course of treatment before relief is sustained.

_____ I understand that I may stop treatment at any time.

_____ I understand that while this document describes major risks of treatment, other side effects and risks may occur.

_____ Acupuncture: I understand that it is a technique using small, sterile, stainless steel needles inserted at specific points in the body, causing a positive response in order to correct various ailments. The location and the application of the needles and the depth of the needle insertion is determined by the nature of the problem. I understand that the application of these needles may be accompanied by a brief painful sensation, and that there is a slight possibility of minor swelling, bleeding, discoloration of the skin, hematoma, a bruise at the site of needling, or fainting. Momentary euphoria or light headedness may occur after treatment. Some very rare risks of acupuncture include spontaneous abortion, pneumothorax (air in the chest cavity that could cause a collapsed lung) and infection.

Moxibustion: I understand that this is the application of indirect heat supplied by burning the herb Folium Artemisiae Vulgaris over a single acupuncture point or groups of points. This generally produces a sensation of relaxation. The area being treated may remain red and warm for several hours after treatment. In rare incidences, a minor burn may occur at the site of moxibustion.

Cupping: I understand that this is the application of round vacuum cups over a large muscular area, such as the back, to enhance blood circulation to the designated area. This method may produce a deep redness, discoloration, and on rare occasions, a minor blister which may persist for up to a week. These marks may resolve on their own and are not indications of complications or injury.

Acupressure/ Tui Na Massage: I understand that I may be given acupressure massage as part of my treatment to modify or prevent pain perception and to normalize the body's physiologic functions. I am aware that side effects that may result from this treatment include, but are not limited to: bruising, sore muscles or aches, and the possible aggravation of symptoms existing prior to treatment. I understand that I may stop the treatment if it is too uncomfortable.

Herbs and Nutritional Supplements: I understand that substances from the Oriental Materia Medica may be recommended to me to treat bodily dysfunction, to modify or prevent pain perception, and to normalize the body's physiologic functions. Herbs are used to facilitate the body's own restorative process. The herbs are usually taken in tea form or mixing powdered granules. I understand that I am not required to take these substances but must follow the direction for administration and dosage if I do decide to take them.

I understand that recommended herbs are traditionally considered safe in the practice of TCM, although some may be toxic in large doses. I understand that some dietary supplements are inappropriate during pregnancy, may interact with medications or other supplements, may have side effects of their own, or may contain potentially harmful ingredients not listed on the label. I also understand that most supplements have not been tested on pregnant women, nursing mothers, or children. Potential risks include but are not limited to: allergic reactions, nausea, gas, stomachache, vomiting, headache, diarrhea, rash, hives, and tingling of the tongue. Some possible side effects of applying topical creams, liniments, ointments and plasters are rashes, hives and tingling of the skin. I will immediately notify my practitioner if any unanticipated or unpleasant effects associated with herb or supplement treatment

_____ I understand that it is not possible to anticipate and explain all risks and complications. Patient Consent Form

The Department of Health and Human Services has established a "Privacy Rule" to help insure that personal health care information is protected for privacy. The Privacy Rule was also created in order to provide standard for certain health care providers to obtain their patients consent for uses and disclosures of health information about the patient to carry out treatment, payment, or health care operations.

As our patient we want you to know that we respect the privacy of your personal medical records and will do what we can to secure and protect that privacy. We strive to always take precautions to protect that privacy. When it is appropriate and necessary, we provide the minimum necessary information to only those we feel are in need of your health care information and information about the treatments, payment, or health care operations in order to provide health care that is in your best interest. We also want you to know that we support your full access to your personal medical records. We may have indirect treatment relationships with you (such as laboratories that only interact with physicians and not patients), and may have to disclose personal health information for purposes of treatment, payment, or health care operations. These are most often not required to obtain patient consent.

You may refuse to consent to the use or disclosure of your personal health information, but this must be in writing. Under this law, we have the right to refuse to treat you should you choose to refuse to disclose your Personal Health Information (PHI). If you choose to give consent in this document, at some future time you may request to refuse all or part of your PHI. You may not revoke actions that have already been taken which relied on this previously signed consent.

If you have any objections to this form, please ask to speak with our HIPAA Compliance Officer. You have the right to review our privacy notice, to request restrictions and revoke consent in writing.

DO YOU WEAR FRAGRANCES?

It is shocking to find out just how many fertility harming chemical toxins come within a commercial fragrance! In 2010, the Campaign for Safe Cosmetics and the Environmental Working Group funded a study, where 17 popular fragrances were analyzed for their real ingredients.

- They found in total 38 secret chemical substances in the fragrances tested and every product contained on average up to 14 undisclosed chemical substances, which are either recognized endocrine disruptors, allergens, carcinogens (cause cancer) or have hardly ever been tested for their safety.
- A total of 12 different secret hormone disrupting chemicals were found, with an average of 4 in each product.
- Each contained 7 different chemicals with the potential to disrupt the hormone system; 6 of these chemicals mimic the hormone estrogen and 1 is associated with thyroid effects.
- Note: Estrogen and thyroid hormones are fundamental for fertility. Please be cautious of this, and courteous to the specialists and those who are being treated here at Acupuncture Fertility Specialists.
- We ask you to avoid all fragrances on the days you come in for your treatments. We appreciate your cooperation and urge to be aware of these fertility harming chemicals.
